THE CHARLEROI MAIL

VOL. XIX—NO 303 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1919 TWO CENTS

SAYS GAS COMPANY WILL WITHDRAW FROM UP-RIVER COMMUNITIES

Will Not Fight in Court and Spend Money in Paying Costs

PLENTY OF DEMAND FOR GAS

The natural. gas situatio in West Brownsville is in very serious state is shown by the statement that the Greensboro Gas Company has decided to abandon its service there during the coming summer. The Brownsville Telegraph, in discussing the situation says:

"We are advised that the gas situation, so far as West Brownsville is concerned, is such that prudent householders will take steps to provide themselves with coal stoves before the first day of September, else they are likely to have some cold victuals for a season. Whether the people of Brownsville and South Broknsville will be served after the first of September is yet in doubt, but West Brownsville is practically certain to have no gas.

While Brownsville and South Brownsville have withdrawn their complaint filed with the Public Service Commission and thereby removed the occasion for the gas company's notice of intention to cease service after September first, the company has not given any assurance that it would not sease such service As to West Brownsville the company cannot continue i ts service without pending a large sum in litigation, and its policy is to conserve its resources for the drilling of wells.

California and the towns in East Bethlehem township are in the same position as West Brownsville. Residents in all of them will do well not to defer providing themselves with coal stoves.

The withdrawal of the gas from West Brownsville may result in the removal of the Brownsville Window Glass company plant from the borough. The company has been paying 35 cents per 1000 feet for its gas for some time, but if the company gives up its West Brownsville franchise it will be unable to serve any consumers in that borough, lawyers fear.

The outstanding feature of the situation is that the gas company will not fight. Its officers say that in view of the scarcity of gas it would be foolish to spend money with lawyers and in court costs that it needs for wells. Furthermore, it can sell all the gas it can produce without fighting.

Firemen Attention

All firemen are requested to report at the Borough building Friday May 30 at 9 a. m. sharp. To take part in the parade. In uniform.

TO COMPLETE WORK ON WEBSTER ROAD

On Monday at noon bids were opened in the county commissioners' office at Greensburg for the letting of contracts on the roads in Westmoreland county, one of which is the highway up Webster hollow. Interest in and about Monessen centered in the Webster hollow road, which will be awarded to the Donora Construction Company at a price of $53,302.99, the lowest bid. The Bell-Brockel Company of Altoona had failed on this piece of roadway and the contract now provides for its completion.

WILL IMPROVE BATHING BEACH

Playgrounds Will Be Combined With Swimming Pool for Summer

EXTENSIVE REPAIRS BEING MADE

The Charleroi bathing beach and children's playground, which are to be combined this year at the bathing beach, promise to give Charleroi people one of the finest breathing spots aicng the valley the coming summer. John B. Schafer, the local jeweler, who has been instrumental in carrying on this splendid work for so many years, will be reinforced during the present season by the Business Men's Association, and the plans already prepared for improvements indicate that the bathing beach will be the most popular spot on the local map.

Thorough the generosity of C. J. Mogan of the Pittsburgh Steel Company, all of the guard fences used in the river will be re-lined with new wire, while Mr. Wikstrom of the Steel Products Company, will present a number of features which will add greatly to the pleasure of all those who enjoy the facilities at that point.

As to the playgrounds the borough has already begun work on the walks through the property, while many features will be added which will entertain the children, swings and other features being among the appliances now on the list to be installed.

The buildings will be remodeled and thoroughly repaired, as well as painted, which with other improvements will give an entirely different appearance to the surroundings.

The announceement of these extensive alterations, which will cost several hundred dollars, will undoubtedly be pleasing to Charleroi people who have in the past enjoyed the facilities which have been provided heretofore at this pont.

Monongahela Celebrated For Returned Soidiers

Hundreds of Charleroi people were in Monongahela on Wednesday assisting our neighboring town in giving a rousing home-coming welcome to the veterans of the great world war. Quite a number of returned soldiers went from Charleroi and took part in the parade, and later were guests of the Ladies' Welfare Society of that city in a chicken dinner which was served at the State Armory.

The demonstration was reported by the general committee having it in charge as one of the most successful ever held in that city. Not only hundreds of returned soldiers took part in the festivities of the day, but likewise many of the patriotic and fraternal organizations of the town, as well as a large representation of the railroad men from Shire Oaks, who were in line with their own band.

A number of officers of the One Hundred and Tenth Infantry were present, including Lt. Col. John Aiken of Washington, Major Fish of Beaver Falls and others, while Major McKay and Lieut Carson and Lieut Patton represented Charleroi among the officers present. Visitors were present from practically every community in the county, and a special committee was present from Waynesburg to get suggestions for the big demonstration to be held in the Greene county capital on the Fourth of July.

The weather was all that could be wished for, which made it possible for the committee to carry out the program to the fullest extent. It was a great day for Monongahela.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETS IN CHARLEROI

The next regular meeting of the Washington County Medical Society will be held Tuesday, June 3, in the Charleroi Savings and Trust company building at 3 p. m. The regular business session will also be carried out.

The scientilc program will consist of papers by Dr. G. K. Hays on "The Treatment of War Wounds in the Early Operations and First Stages," and "The Effect of Gas Injuries and Results" by T. J. Hanlon. This scientific program is furnished for this meeting by physicians who served abroad and saw some strenuous times on the western battle front. The program will be devoted exclusively to war practice and an excellent meeting is assured.

MAY FORM BRANCH OF FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION IN COUNTY

Meeting Held in Washington on Wednesday to Push Project

JUST GETTING STARTED IN STATE

About fifty people, representing different sections of the county, attended a meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the court house at Washington under the auspices of the Farm Bureau for the purposes of explaining the working of the Farm Loan association.

Irving P. Lang, representative of the Federal Land Bank of Baltimore gave a very complete and clear explanation of the whole system, showing that the Federal Farm Loan act was modeled after the co-operative loan associations of European countries and had been drawn up by a committee sent to Europe to study their methods.

While the act has been in operation for three years the organization work is just starting in Pennsylvania. At present the majority of counties have Farm Loan associations formed or under way.

It was erplained by Wr Whitehead that local associations may be formed by 10 or more individuals, who wish to borrow $20,000 or more for agricultural improvement, such as the purchasing of land for agricultural purposes, the purchasing of agricultural machinery, live stock or fertilizer, providing building or improvements, paying off existing debts and mortages, borrowing at 5 1-2 per cent interest.

The loans run for a period of 34 1-2 years, payable semi-annually and by the amortization feature the interest and principal are both paid by the end of that time. In other words the charge of a $1,000 loan would be at the rate of 1-2 per cent which covers both interest and principal.

Many of those present signed up as desirous of securing a loan through the Farm Loan association.

INFANTRY BAND WILL GO ON A TOUR

The One Hundred and Tenth Infantry band, whose headquarters are at Greensburg, and which was just mustered out of the servide, assembled in Greensburg on Thursday, preparatory to going on a two weeks' tour of Western Pennsylvania. It will likely visit the towns in which the Regiment had units.

PRESENT FLAG TO VETERANS

Beautiful National Emblem For New Soldiers' Organization

IS GIVEN BY SCHOOL CHILDREN

A beautiful American silk flag, regulation size, will be presented to the Returned Soldiers' Organization of Charleroi, by the school children on Memorial Day. The presentaton will be very informal at this time, but when the local veterans have perfected their organization a more formal presentation will take place.

In the presentation of this flag all of the school children of the borough have had a part, some contributing pennies, some nickels and others dimes, but all giving according to their means, that they might have some little part in this splendid testimonial to the veterans of the great war.

The flag is complete in every respect, being made of heavy gros grain silk, with heavy embroidered stars of white silk on the blue field. Streamers will also be provided, appropriately lettered, but this feature will not be added until the organization has been perfected and chosen a name. The gift is one that will be highly appreciated by the veterans, and one that they will be supremely proud of.

Notice Malta.

Companions wishing to participate in Memorial parade will meet at hall at 8:30 a. m. with out uniforms.

VATICAN TO COL. HOUSE

Nobody seems to have stood the ordeal of the Peace Conference better or to have built up a more solid reputation in Paris than Col. E. M. House. The Poles of Warsaw are erecting a monument to Col. House "in recognition of his services toward securing the freedom and independence of Poland." Just what Col. House did in this connection has not yet been made very clear, but Lord Northcliffe has rated him as one of the most active and capable of the men gathered at Paris. "Every delegation would be better off for a Col. House," declared Lord Northcliffe a good many weeks ago. Many have been the mentions of Col. House during recent months, each indicating that some difficult and delicate task of diplomacy had been entrusted to him. And now comes the following Associated Press dispatch from Rome, with its implied testimony to the great and widely recognized importance of Col. House:

"Cardinal Gasparri. the Papal Secretary of State, has written in the name of the Pope an official note to Col. House of the American Peace Delegation. In it he transmits the arguments sent to the Pontiff by the German Bishops to demonstrate the absolute impossibility of their country fulfilling the peace conditions imposed by the Allies. In his note Cardinal Gasparri explains that the Pope takes this step in favor of Germany as hewould do for any country requesting his assistance, as he is only animated by humanitarian feelings. He begs Col. House to submit the situation to the wisdom and enlightment of President Wilson. hoping the President will use his powerful influence with the other delegates of the various Powers with a view to securing a peace which will really be lasting."

Whether this be the result of humanitarian feeling or is due to the influence of German and Austrian Catholics, the fact that interests us for the moment is that the Vatican directly addresses the persuasive and wonder-working Col. House, 'begging' him to influence President Wilson and through the President the Peace Conference in general. After this we shall not be surprised even to hear that the Abyssinian delegation. which has reached Paris bearing rich gifts from the dusky royalties claiming descent from Soloman and the Queen of Sheba, has laid the half of its ivory. silks, apes and peacocks at the feet of Col. House.

Col. House, a self-made Texan of large means, a long resident of New York City. a watchful and shrewd observer in many European capitals, has never sought office and has seemed to care to "get into the game" only through others. He is not even a Colonel. this title being a mere compliment bestowed by Southern friends who appear to have acted on the principle of the old-time Southern darky who invariably addresses as "Cap'n" every man in whom he recognized powers of leadership and capacity for command. Col. House has been described as a mystery. Obviously he is a personage. and it is being made pretty clear that he is a wonder.

WHAT MEN HAVE DONE

The veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic have complained for many years that the exercises of the National Memorial Day did not attract the attention that they ought to. While they were upholding the lessons of patriotism in poorly attended meetings. the crowds were going to the ball games. Men who had placed their lives at the service of their country felt this apparent neglect very keenly.

Yet these veterans in an unostentatious way have been conducting a work that has had profound result As they spoke to the children in their schools. as they delivered their fervent speeches at camp fires and encampments, they emphasized a certain ideal. The men who served in the Confederate forces expressed the same conviction.

The two great and gray bearded armies stood for this idea, that a man who has respect for himself must cheerfully give up the security and the peace of his home when the call of duty and patriotism comes. and must be prepared to defend his principles to the death if need be.

Fifty years of peace followed the terrific onslaughts of '61-'65. The little Spanish war seems today but a slight interruption. Many thought that the spirit of '61 had died out of the American heart. but all through these years the veterans of the Civil War on both sides of the old line of division had been sewing seed. They communicated their convictions to a new generation. When the call came that generation rose and acted with the spirit that had been handed on to them.

These veterans, then, are entitled to special honor on this year's Memorial Day, not merely for their great sacrifices and service. 50 years ago. but for the quiet. patient labor of years in upholding a national standard of devotion and service. Their spirit fired the young America of today and made it unconquerable.

SPEED CASE IS NOT YET SETTLED

William Risbeck, of Donora, who wrecked two wheels of a Standard Eight machine Monday afternoon, while making a demonstration in Fifth street. and who later left a deposit of $50 for a hearing before the Burgess on a charge of exceeding the speed limit, informed the Mail this morning that the case against him had not been settled. He further stated that, while admitting he had exceeded the speed limit and thus violated the ordinance. he proposed appearing before the Burgess in an honorable and legitimate manner and would pay whatever fine was imposed. He informed the Mail that he had secured an attorney and that the hearing had been fixed for Wednesday evening, June 4th.

Mr. Risbeck said that so far as the speed ordinance of Charleroi borough was concerned it had been broken hundreds of times and without any action being taken by borough officials. and that while he was willing to pay for any infractions of the law on his part he did not care about being "made the goat."

The Junior High Literary society gave a very interesting program at the High school auditorium this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Capt. James E. Gee of Monongahela and Rev. John R Burson were the speakers. while the Boy Scouts gave a half-hour exhibition of their activities.

1868 Memorial Day 1919

IT has been fifty-one years since this brilliant little woman inspired and helped her great husband, General John A. Logan, U. S. A., and then commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, establish America's Memorial Day, on May 30. The order went forth from Logan's office in Washington, May 5, 1868. Since then our day of observance to the memory of fallen war heroes has found its place in foreign lands and this year France and England will place flowers on graves "over there."—lives given for humanity—while this nation bows its head for the heroes of all its wars—the crusaders who have given all—for freedom. Rounding out a career which has been a life of sacrifice Mrs. John A. Logan has just been decorated with the Belgian medal of Queen Elizabeth, by the king and queen for work as head of the Washington committee on Belgian relief.

PETITION FOR AID TO COMPLETE ROAD

On Saturday last, at a meeting of the Rostraver township supervisors' meeting a petition for state and county aid was signed up for the small section on the Monongahela river road below Webster. It is estimated that a mile and a half will reach the Allegheny county line at what was formerly known as Daggs' ferry.

The petition calls for 50 per cent state, 25 per cent county and 25 per cent township, and was presented to the supervisors by citizens of Webster and Monessen, where the petition must lie for a period of thirty days, after which the county commissioners will file it at Harrisburg with the Highway department.

Several years ago the board of commissioners of Allegheny county agreed to complete the section lying in that county between Axelton and Webster provided Westmoreland county would improve its section. This is merely a project to carry out that arrangement.

The road now under construction along the river opposite Monongahela will likely be finished this summer, anr if it is possible to connect up with these "missing links," it would give a good highway on the east side of the river all the way from Monessen to Pittsburg.

ASCENSION DAY SERVICES BY TEMPLARS

Local members of McKean Commandery. No. 80, Knights Templar, will leave this evening on a special car at 6:15, for Monongahela, where Ascension Day services will be held. At Monongahela the Templars will assemble at the lodge room of Henry M. Phillips Lodge, and from there the commandery will proceed to the First Presbyterian church. where the services will be held. The sermon will be preached by the Rev. William F. McKee. pastor of the church. with special music by the choir. The service is open to the public and it is expected that quite a large number of friends of the Templars will be in attendance.

CUTTING SCRAPE MAY RESULT FATALLY

One man is a patient in the Memorial hospital, Monongahela, with little hopes of his recovery, and another is lodged in the Monessen police station with a bad wound in his hip as the result of a house party which took place while three men were enroute from Homestead to Monessen Monday evening on a freight train. John Rodgers of Sixteenth street, Homestead, is in the hospital with a bad knife wound in his groin, while his companion, Frank Gallagher, also of Homestead, is being detained at the Monessen police station, stabbed in the hip. A third party, whom the injured men claim is responsible for the stabbing is at large.

According to their story they boarded a freight at Homestead late Monday evening, each with a half pint of whiskey, the party being bound for Monessen. Shortly after they got on the train an Italian boarded the car and discovering the men had whiskey demanded that he be given a share. This they refused and in the altercation which followed the Italian used a knife with telling effect on the two. Just where the fight took place they would not reveal but the whiskey was dispensed with [illegible] the Italian left the train at the [illegible] end of Monessen.

The other two men came on up to Fourth street and alighting reported at the Monessen police station at 9:45 p. m. Their clothing was blood soaked and a physician was called. The serious condition of Rodgers was confirmed and he was rushed to the hospital, where his condition is reported as being quite serious. Gallagher is being held as a witness should Rodgers' wound result fatally.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Stahlman have received a telegram from their son, Lieut. Miles C. Stahlman, who was in service thirteen months on the staff of the 80th Division. The telegram came from Newport News, Va., where the 80th Division landed on Wednesday. He expects to return home to Charleroi in a short time.

The Dorcas Bible class of the Methodist church held a farewell party at the home of Mrs. Derryman Monday evening in honor of Mrs. B. F. Barnett who has left for Everett, her former home. Mrs. Barnett will spend the summer there.

Joseph H. Pearson, who for the past year has been stationed with the statistical department of the United States Army in London, arrived home this morning, having been discharged from service.

I was there to make a sketch of her. Luncheon was just over, and she was talking to a little knot of women. The first words I heard, as I slid quietly into a nearby seat, were "National Biscuit," recalling pleasantly my own tasty Uneeda Luncheon. I liked her, and settled comfortably as she spoke again [illegible] and ears busy.

"Between the dark and daylight," she was quoting, "there's always a bit of pause [illegible] seems waiting and listening—for the children. Since they were tiny things, I've given that hour to my babies. First I had to [illegible] Then, when they [illegible] to toddle, I [illegible] me in my [illegible] no one [illegible] Children [illegible] and [illegible] to [illegible] too-[illegible] ten to [illegible] pad of [illegible] were wait[illegible] Hour.

"You see, even [illegible] went on, "are much [illegible] mals. They are most lovable and most tractable after they've had something to eat. National Biscuit dainties always begin our Children's Hour like a feast. For the tiny toddlers there is a varied menu, sometimes Uneeda Biscuit and milk, sometimes Graham Crackers, Oatmeal Crackers or Lunch Biscuit. This is changed on special occasions to Old Time Sugar Cookies or Fig Newtens and, rarest of rare days when we had ice cream and Nabisco, and those were our party days.

"Don't think my hour is just a [illegible] us happily, that is all, and made us sure they would keep coming every day—for you and I both know we must feed children, as we must babies, if we would [illegible] and after their always like ready to up in tent. em ed e, e t o f ts, eir hour it seem ily enough er, but always always dainty, always appetizing as only National Biscuit Products can be. During the years when my babies were growing up we never missed the Children's Hour with its tasty feast.

Spencer Garage

Ever Thought of a Tire Bonus, Mr. Truck Owner?

Say, for example, you gave your driver $1 on every single tire and $2 on every dual for every thousand miles over the maker's guarantee.

How advantageous such an arrangement — you save from $10 to $20 per thousand miles, just by spending a dollar or two.

And fancy your driver—how careful. How he would ease the truck over bumps, how he would refrain from spinning the rear wheels, for instance, lest he grind off dollars.

With GOODRICH DE LUXE Truck Tires under your load and 100% co-operation from your driver, you would write off your original tire investment several times.

—for DE LUXE Truck Tires have in their deep, specially-toughened treads a natural thrift that can easily be broadened by the method advanced.
